

The Business Plan Structure

When you are putting together your Business Plan, try to include most of the sections below as they apply to your particular venture.

Cover Page

Contents Page

Executive Summary

Business Plan Overview

Business Background

Legal Business Background

Business History

Current Activities

Financial Situation

Qualification /Experience

Senior Management

External Personnel

Staffing Requirements

Aims & Objectives

Mission Statement

Business Objective

Products & Services

Current Product & Services

Competitive Advantage

Technology

Production facilities & Processes

Customer Service

Development Plans

The Market

Industry Overview

Customer Profile

Competition Overview

Market Research

External Influences

Marketing

Marketing Message

Positioning

Branding

Pricing Objectives

Price Determination

Price Adjustment Strategies

Marketing Methods

Advertising

Direct Mail

Trade Shows/ Exhibitions

Public Relations

Sales

Sales Channels

Sales Channels Objectives

Channel Management

Sales Personnel

Lead Processing

Order Processing

Payment Terms

Customer Service Policy

Sales Force Management

Sales Logistics

Financial Plan

Finance Required

Spending Plans

Financial Reports

Reports Analysis

Sales & Costs Substitution

Balance Sheet

Cashflow Validation

Exit Strategy

Opportunities & Threats

Risks

Opportunities

Timetable & Deadlines

Milestones

Appendices